

BOY 8, BURNED WHEN LACQUER CAN EXPLODES

Tosses Tin in Rubbish
Fire at Bowling Alley

An 8-year-old New Lenox boy was severely burned when a practically empty lacquer tin that he had thrown onto a smoldering rubbish fire exploded and the flaming liquid was sprayed on both legs. Two men, passing by, saved him from possible fatal injury.

The victim is Gary Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neatus Wilson who operate the Frankfort bowling alleys. The Wilsons were getting the alleys ready for the coming season and last Wednesday afternoon had been clearing out some of the odds and ends that accumulate during such a process.

Gary had carried out some empty lacquer tins. They were empty as far as practical use was concerned but there is always a little of the contents left. Lacquer is used to coat the surface of the alleys and is highly volatile and inflammable.

One of the cans was closed and when it was tossed onto the fire the heat caused the gases in the can to expand and explode. What lacquer was left in the can sprayed on Gary's legs and ignited.

Mother Faints

The mother, Alice, who was in the bowling alley heard the explosion and ran outdoors. When she saw Gary with his legs blazing, Mrs. Wilson fainted.

Two men passing by, Fred Uthe, of Frankfort, and Albert Pigush, of Green Garden, seized the panic stricken, screaming boy before he could run, beat out the flames, and ripped off his shoes and stockings. The stocking on Gary's right leg was burned off, as were the laces in his right shoe.

Uthe and Pigush then took Gary to the Hedges Clinic at Frankfort where the lad's burns were dressed and he was then taken home.

The boy is suffering from second degree burns on both legs. The right is burned from the knee down while the burns on the left leg are confined mostly to the middle area.

Gary has been suffering considerable pain and has been under sedatives most of the time since. The boy's condition is reported as improved and physicians are hopeful that a skin graft will not be necessary.

Gary will be a pupil in the third grade of the New Lenox public school when he is able to attend classes.

Mokena Girl's
Cow Wins Top
Honors At Fair

Whether Linda Matasovic, 13 of Mokena, will show her champion Hereford cow at the International Stock show in Chicago this fall has not been decided but admits the prospects is tempting as the animal fared high at the hands of the judges at the Illinois state fair.

Linda's cow was proclaimed grand champion of the beef breeds in the 4H club division of the state fair stock show, as has been reported previously.

Then last Thursday in competition with the finest Herefords in both senior and junior divisions, Linda's entry was named champion female Hereford. This was against entries from Illinois, Kansas, Tennessee and Texas and it was the first time in the history of the fair that a 4H member has ever won the top honors offered in the Hereford competition.

Linda was as surprised by her fortune as she was happy. She never expected to win, she said.

High Court Rules
Reverters Out If
50 Years Old

As a result of a decision of the Illinois supreme court, many school districts will now find themselves as owners of property which under the original deeds was to have reverted to the heirs of the grantors who no longer used for school purposes. Heretofore districts only disposed of the buildings or abandoned sites.

The legislature enacted some new law dealing with reverters that were over 50 years old. In such cases according to the law, the property did not revert to the heirs of the grantor or the grantor—providing he lived that long.

The law was attacked in Chicago where the Circuit court of Cook county held that it was unconstitutional. It was thought that the ruling would be appealed but it wasn't but a similar case has been taken up to the supreme court from St. Clair county and the high court returned an opinion to the same effect as that of the Cook county circuit court.

A copy of the supreme court's decision has been received by County Superintendent Verne E. Crackel from Attorney N. E. Hutson, of the state department of education, and is available to any boards that are facing this problem.

Last year the Frankfort village school district annexed Dist. No. 155, the Rahm school and the New Lenox grade school district annexed the Gougar district last year and Lyvak school this year. It is understood that these sites are covered by reverter clauses that are more than 50 years old so that the title to the site will remain with the schools.

Title to school lands vest in the county board of school trustees. To sell such land the district in which it is located must first hold a referendum and if the sale is approved the trustees then sell the property at public auction.

It is understood that this ruling applies to reversion clauses covering any land.

Treasurer Makes
Distribution of Taxes to Towns

Will County Treasurer Floyd Krapf is distributing $948,081.74 in taxes that he has collected since taking over that work from the township collectors beginning June 1.

Incidentally the second installment is due on real estate taxes by Sept. 1, which is a week from today. Taxes due on that date which remain unpaid will be increased by the amount of the penalty imposed by law.

In the distribution made yesterday by County Treasurer Krapf, the total sum allocated to Frankfort township was $18,086.23 of which $1,503.45 is for various township purposes, $248.81 for the village of Frankfort and $378.32 for the village of Mokena. The remainder of the sum, $16,055.67 will go to the schools in the township.

In New Lenox township the total amount to be distributed is $19,855.75 of which $1,903.63 goes to the town, $194.18 to the library, $1,020.96 to the village; $512.64 to the fire district and $15,011.38 to the schools.

In Green Garden township the amount to be distributed totals $2,701.89 of which $802.09 goes to the town and $1,899.80 to the schools. In Homer township the total amount distributed is $8,085.64, of which $1,888.91 goes to the town, $171.14 to the fire district and the remainder, $6,025.59, is divided among the school districts.

Tolerance of other drivers' difficulties shows a mature point of view. A tolerant driver doesn't try to take advantage of or "get even" with other motorists.

Isabelle Davidson and 6, 7 and 8, Lloyd Alton.

Children entering first grade must be six years old by Dec. 1, and must have their birth or baptismal certificates with them. All children entering the first and fifth grades must bring their health and dental certificates and a dollar each to cover accidental insurance, according to John Van Donk, president of the school board.

Thousands at 16th Annual Homecoming

Thousands turned out for the 16th annual Mokena homecoming this year that began last Friday night and closed Sunday. Scores of former residents of the community returned for the occasion and renewed old friendships and exchanged reminiscences of bygone days.

There were many exhibits on display in the exhibition tent and special entertainment features were staged on the platform that stood nearby.

The committee expressed its appreciation of cooperation of residents and business people and the weatherman. It was hot but except for a brief shower Sunday afternoon after the main parade had passed, there was no rain.

Beverly Lauffer, 16, won Mokena queen contest, which was decided Sunday night after the final votes had been counted. Runners-up in the competition were Rosemary Grobarick, Mary Stahl and Joyce Klinger. Blonde Miss Lauffer was candidate of the Mokena Civic Association. The Civic association and the Mokena Lions club were co-sponsors of the homecoming, with Norval Robinson representing the Lions and Stanley Williams the Civic association. They were co-chairmen.

Pupils from the Donna Schenkel dancing school of Mokena and students of the Kelly School of Dance, Joliet, gave programs on the outdoor stage.

There was street dancing on Front st., east of Mokena st.

There were many floats in the parade Sunday and the judges, Sheriff Roy C. Doerflinger, Coroner Willard G. Blood and Will County Republican Chairman C. H. Peterson, had a difficult task in selecting the prize winners.

Parade Winners
The park board's float, "The Neighbors," which included a wading pool, play equipment, rocking chairs and a homey, backyard flavor, was held to be the most outstanding entry and so received the big loving cup.

There were four cups in all for the most outstanding float and one cup each for first, second and third place. First place went to the Frankfort Woman's club float, a buggy decked in white and blue and occupied by two women dressed in summer styles of a day when the horse and buggy was the only sure transportation for individuals.

Second place was awarded to the float entered by Donna Schenkel's dancing school - in which many youngsters took part, quite a few in Scots, bonnets and plaids, and the cup for third place went to the Mokena Boy Scouts - an Indian scene which included a tepee that was represented as the home of Chief Moke.

Honorable mention was given to 12 floats - Frankfort school, the Semmler Newspapers - this was the float on which the village trustees rode; the Youth Fellowship float of St. John's church, Vic Eisenbrandt's blacksmith shop, the 4-H Jolly Troopers, Green Garden Farmers Insurance, Royal Neighbors of Frankfort, Cooper and Hostert garage, Mokena; Yunker Implement Co., of Orland Park; the Mokena Lawn Cutters; Explorers post No. 40, with a hobo "jungle" scene and Sangmeister Electric Co., Frankfort. The Mokena VFW drum and bugle corps furnished the music.

Children Get Prizes Too

The children's and pet parade that preceded the main parade, was led by the Mokena school band, that is just getting organized for the coming year.

Prizes were awarded to entries in this procession too, and first prize went to Allen Hostert, 6 years old, for his green and white "cat boat on wheels." Second prize was awarded to the Spiess brothers, Gregory, 6, and Jerry, 3 for their Indian canoe and third prize was given to Lynn Clarke, as an Indian princess on a very white pony.

Honorable mention was made of six entries, Gene Crocan, 3 years old, on a tricycle; Betty Lehmann, 10, who appeared as a Chinese girl with the smallest pets in the parade - crickets; Loraine Marshall, 12, Margaret Marshall, 6, and Donna Bost, 7, hula dancers; Connie Newton, 3, who had the smallest dog; Dorothy Omland, 4, who appeared as a medicine man and 4 year old Jill Vally with a pair of burros.

Proceeds accruing from the homecoming will be divided among the Civic association, the Lions club and the Mokena park board to finance their community and welfare projects. A financial report of the affair will be made later.

Now homecoming is over for another year and on Monday morning most everyone was glad there was that much time intervening because on Monday most everyone in Mokena was quite tired.

Honor Mokena School Principal

Mrs. Elizabeth Cappel (left) principal of Mokena public school with which she has been associated for the past 26 years, was honored at the village homecoming this year. Sunday, Aug. 21, was Elizabeth Cappel day. She received a scroll, a book containing the autographs of hundreds of her former pupils, a bouquet of roses and a statuette which is being presented by Mrs. George Reid, in behalf of the Mokena Girl Scouts, which among countless other things, was organized by Mrs. Cappel.

Mokena Pays Tribute to Beloved
School Principal, Elizabeth Cappel

Heretofore Aug. 21 has had no particular significance in Mokena as far as the community itself was concerned but now it has been set down in the archives of the town as a very special date indeed.

This year, Aug. 21, the closing day of Mokena's 16th annual homecoming celebration, was set aside as Elizabeth Cappel Day, and as such has become a red letter date in the community.

Mrs. Elizabeth Krusemark Cappel came to Frankfort from Truman, Minn., in August, 1929, to visit relatives. She had been teaching in Minnesota but when informed of a vacancy in the teaching staff of the Mokena grade school she applied and was signed to what Robert Geuther school board president described as a 26-year contract, which is still in effect.

During this time more than 500 pupils taught by Mrs. Cappel have been graduated and most of them were on hand to do her homage on her day.

A score commemorating Mrs. Cappel's service to the community was presented to her along with a book containing the names of her former pupils which they had signed in person. She also was given a statuette by the Girl Scouts - Mrs. Cappel organized the Girl Scouts in Mokena - and a beautiful bouquet of roses presented by 8-year-old Dennis Cappel, a nephew.

Mr. Geuther was introduced by J. Herbert Wrath, master of ceremonies for the homecoming. An Influence For Good
Mrs. Cappel has been a tremendous influence for good in the community, Mrs. Geuther said.

"Her gracious, kind understanding, her willing ear, and her sound advice have had great effect on the lives of the more than 500 pupils that have been graduated since she has been teacher and principal," Mr. Geuther said. "Many have gone on to make notable records and won high honors in various fields. But most important is that they have become good citizens."

Mrs. Cappel believes in fundamentals. She insists that her pupils read well, write well and figure well, but she also is thoroughly alive to progress in education and has kept up with all the gains.

Mr. Geuther also spoke of her versatility, which has included a stint as basketball coach, and extolled her sense of civic responsibility.

"The three sides of the triangle that form the basis of good citizenship are church, home and school," Mr. Geuther went on, "and it is a tribute to Mrs. Cappel that her side of the triangle has always been straight and strong."

Two other members of the board, Edwin Yunker and Hans Muehler, spoke briefly. Tribute to Mrs. Cappel also was given by former pupils, Anita Geuther, now Mrs. Russell Peterson of Joliet, and Delores Cooper, now Mrs. Willard Barenz, of Mokena, who was in the graduating class of 1934. Mrs. George Reid, a member of the Girl Scout committee, thanked Mrs. Cappel for her work in organizing the Scouts here and in their behalf presented the guest of honor with a Scout statuette.

Mrs. Cappel expressed herself as overwhelmed.
"It is difficult," she said, "to endeavor to express my appreciation of your wonderful act on the part of the community. I have had 26 wonderful years with you and I don't believe I could ever have found more happiness and contentment than I have here."

Mrs. Cappel was married after she had been teaching in Mokena and thanks to the understanding of her husband, Albert, and his willingness to have her continue with her teaching, she has been able to pursue her career without interruption, Mrs. Cappel said.

She also expressed her gratitude for the cooperation given her by her fellow workers, the parents, the pupils, the school board and the county school authorities.

"I have had good pupils," she said, "and I am very proud of them. I also am very glad and very proud to have been permitted to have a part in the civic life of Mokena, I am glad to be a part of this community and my cup of happiness is overflowing. This scroll and this book with the signatures of my former pupils will always be my prized possession."

Merle Krusemark, a nephew, his wife and their daughters, from Truman, were here for the occasion.

Besides the above who were seated on the platform with her was, Elmer Cooper, surviving member of the original board who hired her.

CARD PARTY

A card party, sponsored by the Auxiliary to the William Martin VFW post at Mokena will be held in their hall on Wolf road Saturday evening, Aug. 27. All games will start promptly at 8:30. The public is invited. Hostesses will be the Mesdames Dave McMillan, Morry Larson, Gus Long, Oscar Schmidt and Fred Steinhagen.

Invites Schools
To Join Traveling
Library Program

An invitation to officials of school districts that have been participating in the traveling library plan for rural schools to again subscribe to the program has been sent out by County Superintendent Verne E. Crackel.

Twenty-one schools participated in the program last year and they contributed a total of $933. That amount added to a balance of $434.10 provided a fund of $1,367.10.

Expenditures amounted to $984.69 cents for new books and operating expenses totaled $204.56, which leaves $177.85 on hand with which to begin the new year.

L-W High Will Open Sept. 6
With Increase in EnrollmentAsks Funds For Flood Victims

A special drive for funds to aid flood victims in the east has been launched by the American Red Cross thruout the nation. No quotas have been set and there will be no corps of workers to solicit donations. Contributions will be entirely voluntary but, it was pointed out, they are very necessary.

In Will county contributions may be sent directly to the Red Cross office, Elks Bldg., Joliet, or persons in this area may leave them at the local banks, the Mokena State, the Frankfort State or the New Lenox State.

The floods that followed recent hurricanes have caused a major disaster in six states, Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland.

Besides the loss of homes and personal possessions thousands of persons have been made jobless because of the plants in which they were employed have been destroyed or seriously damaged, a survey shows the Red Cross said.

Needs Additional Funds

The federal government's aid goes to taxing bodies for use in repairing roads or other public owned property that was damaged or destroyed, it was explained. But most of the individuals who lost homes or possessions must look to the Red Cross for assistance, in making replacements, it was said.

The Red Cross has already allocated $2-million from its regular funds for the cause but more than double this amount will be needed, which is more than is earmarked annually for disaster relief in the Red Cross budget. Hence it is necessary for the special collection.

So far the Red Cross has sent 260 workers, trained in relief duties, into the area and 150 physicians and 400 nurses, all volunteers, also are there to aid the casualties resulting from the flood.

But for the relief plans to succeed dollars are necessary, it was pointed out by Red Cross officials and they ask the public to help.

Plan Workshop
On School Lunch
Program in Fall

Persons in charge of school lunch programs will have an opportunity to exchange ideas and hear experts on the subject at the school lunch workshop to be conducted at Ottawa (Ill.) high school in LaSalle county, Sept. 17.

The workshop primarily, includes the general requirements of school lunch operation, menu planning, meal pattern, record keeping etc. Each of those attending will be furnished with a workshop pamphlet containing the material to be discussed.

The workshop is to begin at 10 a.m., daylight saving time, Sept. 17 is on a Saturday. Lunch and refreshments are to be sent to the principal of Ottawa high school, MacRae Shannon.

Notice of the meeting has been sent out by Will county Superintendent of Schools Verne E. Crackel.

Supt. Crackel also has sent a communication to school administrators under his jurisdiction relating to the school lunch program.

It deals with the rates of reimbursement from state and federal funds, the special milk program, limitation of profit and surplus commodities. The bulletin deals mostly with technical details that have little meaning to anyone not directly connected with such programs.

Mokena Library in Operation Again

The Mokena library has once again found a home and has now moved into a new location, the Kule building on Front street. It was formerly the Mokena bake shop. The library will be open as usual each Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9 p.m. The committee in charge hopes that the former patrons as well as many new ones, will come to the library and enjoy the books.

New Super-Mart Type of Food
Store Opening in Mokena Sept. 1

Mokena is to have a new, modern, complete self service food store when The Shopping Bag, on Wolf road, near LaPorte, opens its doors next Thursday, Sept. 1.

The store, which is owned and will be operated by Ralph Thoresen, is a super-mart in type and size and can serve the entire area, according to merchandizers.

The building is 42 feet in width and 100 feet long, thus providing 4,200 square feet of floor space. And to accommodate shoppers there is parking space on all sides of the building, some 21 thousand square feet of it.

The store is of brick, block and concrete construction and is equipped with all the latest devices to facilitate shopping, including electric eye operated doors. More than 100 linear feet of self-service refrigerated cases are being set in place to carry the stocks of frozen food, dairy products and meats. There will be a long section devoted to fresh meats alone. Mr. Thoresen, who has a background which includes experience in the methods of merchandizing used by the large chains - he worked for two of them - is a butcher by trade and his last employment has been as a salesman for Swift & Co. He has hired two butchers who will prepare the meats in a glass enclosed room behind the refrigerated cases. A huge, walk-in type of refrigerator where the meats are hung, opens into this cutting room.

The Shopping Bag will carry all popular national brands. Mr. Thoresen said, with a price program new to this area. Low prices, he said, would be in force every day - not just for an occasional week-end special, as a result of a merchandizing agreement made by Thoresen.

The store will be open every day, Mr. Thoresen said, from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m., Monday thru Saturday and from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sundays.

Besides the two butchers Mr. Thoresen will employ eight other persons, check-out girls and stock-boys, and all of them are residents of Mokena. Mr. Thoresen himself lives in Frankfort. He is married and has two children.

Construction on the store was started last March. The contractor was Robert Fredin.

Miss Vivian Osmus of New Lenox who will become the bride of Mr. Edward B. Nowels Sept. 17 has been honored with two prenuptial parties.

The first party was given Aug. 15 by Miss Audrey Gilgen in her home on Gum street New Lenox. It was a surprise party for Miss Osmus, who was presented with a corsage. Buncos was played with prizes given the winners and also duplicate prizes. Dessert-coffee was served from a table covered with white crepe paper and centered with a white decorated cake. Pink and yellow streamers radiated from the cake to each place where miniature bride and groom were placed beneath an umbrella. Guests came from Joliet, Mokena and New Lenox.

The second shower was a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Gordon Osmus, Mrs. Donald Osmus, Mrs. Leonard Osmus and the bride-to-be mother, Mrs. E. A. Osmus. It was held in the Lions Den Sunday afternoon with a large attendance. The honored guest received a corsage of small roses. Crash buncos was played with prizes going to the winners and duplicate prizes to Miss Osmus.

Following the games, refreshments were served from a table decorated in pink and blue, the chosen colors of the bride elect. A floral arrangement centered the table. Among the guests who came from Gary, LaPorte, Ind.; Lockport, Chicago Heights, Aurora were Mr. and Mrs. William Scherpe from St. Petersburg, Fla. who have been visiting relatives for several months.

Bremen Auxiliary

A short business meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary Bremen Post VFW, 2791, preceded the social on August 16, presided over by Gladys Elliott.

Ways and means chairman, Ruth Rump reported Etta Wolf and Helen Mott served at the games Aug. 13. Eleanor Larimore, Esther Malone and Bessie Seeley worked as escort service at Hines during July. Ruth Rump also reminded members of the surprise breakfast planned for the end of August. Etta Wolf will be chairman of the smorgasbord planned for Oct. 14, and Kay May gave a reminder of the rummage sale to be held in Sept., instead of October as previously announced. Pickups are now being made for this sale. Persons with goods are asked to call Mrs. Elliott, Kellogg 2-4571.

Vera Nordhoff, recreation commission representative from the auxiliary, outlined its duties at the coming festival. Mary Maxwell has gone to Boston for the National VFW convention which opens tomorrow, Aug. 26 and runs thru the 29.

Garden Group Has Delightful Tour in Indiana

Members of the Tinley Park Garden club had a delightful meeting last Thursday at the summer home of Mrs. Henry Duff at Saugana Shores, formerly Liberty Bell beach, in LaPorte county, Ind. Moderate temperatures prevailed last Thursday so the drive was pleasant, winding as it did thru peach and apple country.

At the Duff home the women had an out-door luncheon and then drove several miles to a memorial garden and shrine. Beautiful lilies, large hibiscus flowers and holly enthralled the visitors.

It was explained to the women that underground springs supply a constant source of moisture so that everything in the garden thrives.

And what was once a greenhouse is now filled with antique lamps, vases, pottery and glassware. Surrounding it are hundreds of jugs, of all shapes, sizes and colors and a sign told one that this was "The Jug Garden."

Small water courses trickled thru the grounds and many of the paths were carried over the streams on small bridges. A stone bench beneath a huge willow tree where one could rest and pray, was like a shrine.

Following the tour the group returned to the Duff cottage, and donned bathing suits and enjoyed themselves at the beach. Then after coffee and rolls the group left for home. On their way back they stopped to view an interesting display of baskets.

Mrs. Thomas Powers and children Linda and Tommy have returned from a 10 day trip to Asheville, N. C., where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Tehle and son George Phelps, former Mokena residents. They also spent a day with Dr. and Mrs. Robert Weir, parents of Mrs. Tehle. The Weirs are formerly of Lincoln Estates and are now living in Skyland, a suburb of Asheville. Their many friends in this vicinity will be interested to know that the Weirs have hung out their Antique sign again and are happily engaged in the work they love.

Dinner guests of the Donald Beckers Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beagley and daughter of Hobart Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pitman and George Lauffer attended a annual family reunion Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Stanley Piper in Grant Park. Guests came from St. Ann, Evanston, Chicago, Joliet, Clinton Iowa, and Mokena.

The Sunday school teachers of the Methodist church met Tuesday night. Plans were made to have the church and Sunday school picnic Sunday afternoon Sept. 11 in the community park. More details will be given later.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carlisle entertained in their home last Tuesday evening a group of young couples from the Methodist church. The purpose was to talk over the organizing of a couples group. It was decided to have another meeting Saturday evening, Sept. 24 in the educational room of the Methodist church at 8 o'clock. At that time further plans will be made. The plan so far is to get a baby sitter for the children at home so as to give the parents an evening of fun and an opportunity to become better acquainted with each other.

Grid Practice At Lincoln-Way To Begin Monday

First call for football has been sounded at Lincoln-Way high school by Coach Jonas Lashmet. Varsity squad members are to be issued uniforms and equipment Saturday morning, Aug. 27. They are to report at the school between 10 a.m. and noon. Members of the frosh-soph squad and others are to draw their gear Saturday afternoon between 1:30 and 4. First practice is scheduled for next Monday afternoon, Aug. 29. It is expected that work will begin about 3 o'clock. Announcement of the practice was made by Coach Lashmet by L-W Supt. A. Hunter Chapman, as Lashmet will not be here in person until the last of the week. Coach Lashmet not being here at this time cannot be asked yet what he thinks of the Black Knights chances in the coming season but presumably he would voice the usual woeful plaints that one comes to expect from coaches.

First Call For Football At Sandburg

Candidates for the Carl Sandburg football squads - varsity and frosh-soph - are to report at the school gym Monday morning, Aug. 29, to get their physical exams and draw their equipment.

10 a.m. is the hour set for the prospective players to report and Coach Joe Devine says that regardless of whether prospective candidates are able to get out for the early practice sessions they are to report Monday for their physicals and to get their gear.

First practice session will begin that afternoon at 3:30. Coach Devine has scheduled eight practice sessions for next week. The squads will be assigned to various periods and work begun on getting them in shape.

Morning practice sessions will begin at 8:30 o'clock and will be held on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays of next week. The afternoon practices will begin at 3:30 and are scheduled for Monday, Tuesday and Thursday. There also will be a practice Saturday afternoon, beginning at 4 o'clock.

Practice sessions will be governed by the regular school calendar after classes resume following Labor day.

Coach Devine will have eight lettermen back this year and while, like any coach, he is not optimistic he believes the coming season will be better than the last.

Last year was Carl Sandburg's first year as a school.

Sue's Homer Wins For Tinley

Sue Balzhizer was the heroine Sunday when the Tinley Girls ball team nosed out the Matteson 8 to 7 in a game played on North Harvey's field.

When she came to bat in the last inning Matteson was leading 7 to 6. There were two outs and Marilyn Yunker was on first. Sue, who is 5 feet 4-inches tall, put all her inches to work in coordination with all of her 128 pounds and teed off on a three and two pitch for a drive that traveled more than 300 feet through right-center field for a two-run homer and the ball game.

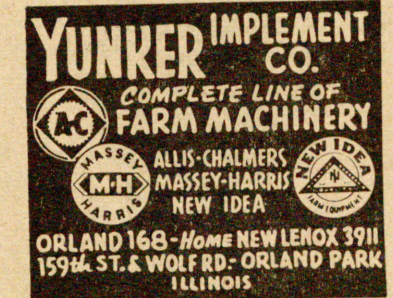

Marilyn Yunker and Diane Albright shared pitching chores for Tinley with Judy Gray catching. The battery for Matteson was made up of Doris Mullin and Edna Cruz.

The Tinley Girls team is managed by Joseph McCarthy with Bill Bingham and Norman Ryer as coaches.

The Tinleys finished second in the league standings this year and will receive its trophy at the annual banquet to be held next Wednesday night, Aug. 31.

Tattersall Tops Drivers

The midget auto racing season in Joliet Memorial Stadium is fast drawing to a close, but before it ends several of the top drivers will be trying to overtake Bob Tattersall's lead in the point standings.

Willie Wilson of Bensenville, for one, will be aiming for his second straight feature race victory Saturday night when the midgets return to action. Jim Bender of DesPlaines and Sam Robinson, Rockdale, also will be seeking second main event victories.

But Tattersall, ace Streater pilot, owns four feature wins and a wide lead in the point standings toward the track championship.

Among the others out to stop Tattersall will be a pair of Chicagoans, Bud Abraham and Tom Carr, who were challenging for the checkered flag when they spun out last Saturday.

More troubles come from Dick Westcott of Lemont; Corky Singer, Tony Saylor and Bob Hauck of Joliet; Tony Lenti and Johnny Riva of Chicago; and Chuck Green, Ottawa.

Time trials, Saturday start at 7:30 p.m. and the first race at 8:30 p.m. There will be four heat races, a handicap race, 15 lap semifinale and 25 lap feature.

FARM INSURANCE
Expenditures for farm property insurance this year are expected to be from five to 10 per cent higher than last year, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The reason for this is that farmers want more nearly to cover current replacement costs.

Department of Agriculture points out, "amounts of insurance have failed to keep step with the rise in property values, so that underinsurance is prevalent."

It costs Americans 30 million dollars a year to clean up roadside litter. The Chicago Motor Club says, "Don't be a Litterbug."

CARD OF THANKS

I should like to express my appreciation to my neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy at the time of my mother's death.

SIGMUND BUKOWSKI and FAMILY

For vacation reasons, contributors of news to this column, if unable to reach Mrs. Mrosek, should call their news to the Semmler Newspaper office, Mokena 3521, the next two weeks.

Mae's first day of school will be Sept. 6, the day after Labor day. Parents should remember that used books should be turned in at the school August 30 between 9 a.m. and 12 noon so that the school board will know how many new books to buy.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Reeves were pleasantly surprised Sunday when his uncle, Orvid Stanley, of near Los Angeles, Calif., and another uncle and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reeves of Harvey dropped in for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Bukowski and family are grieved over the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary Bukowski of Chicago, Wednesday. Services were at St. Mary's of Perpetual Help, Saturday, and interment in Resurrection cemetery.

News from most of the residents in the community is about the same because nearly everyone was doing the same thing, either rubbing elbows at the 4H fair in Chicago Heights or at the Mokena Homecoming.

The Orland Boys 4H club met Monday evening at the Maue school with families of the members as guests. The president Walter Bernard, presided. The secretary and treasurer's reports were given by Darrell Erickson.

Duane Erickson, vice president, expressed the good wishes of the club to Norman Bernard 4H leader, who is leaving for the service. Mr. Whiteside, So. Cook County Farm adviser, thanked Norman for his good work as a leader and advised the boys to follow his example. Charles Erickson, president of the Cook County Farm Bureau, and Edward Mrosek Sr., also said a few words of thanks and encouragement. On behalf of the club and the members' parents, Laurence Lauffer presented Norman with a clock radio.

Last minute fair plans were made. Don Gee and Robert Stellwagen each gave a talk on their dairy project. Then Robert Stoutenour gave a talk on his rabbits.

The meeting was closed with the 4H pledge, following which 4H members and their families retired to the basement where a party honoring Norman Bernard was enjoyed. Tables were covered with green and white paper, the 4H colors. A banquet size cake, decorated in green and white, centered one table. Candles, one green and one white were burning on opposite sides of the cake. From other tables barbecued hamburgers, potato chips, pickles, coffee and pop were served. — Bobby Stellwagen, Publicity.

No. Illinois Gas Has Busy Year; Big Growth

Northern Illinois Gas Co. has led an eventful existence since it took over the operations of Public Service company gas properties in February, 1954, as the tenth largest gas distributing utility in the nation, the second in size in Illinois.

It not only is commemorating the 100th anniversary of gas service in its territory this month, but added the 500,000th customer to the system in July and broke all previous peak gas sendout records on five consecutive days in January of this year.

In addition, the company and its more than 2,500 employees have virtually completed separation of gas and electric activities from those previously conducted jointly with Public Service.

While these separation activities were in progress, Marvin Chandler, president and chief executive officer of Northern Illinois Gas, announced an approximate $63 million four year construction program, 1955-58, that will prepare the utility's system for the anticipated increase in the number of customers as northern Illinois continues its steady population growth.

Reporting to stockholders in June at the company's first annual meeting in Aurora, the utility's corporate headquarters, Chandler pointed out that since 1940 more than 200,000 customers had been added to the system—an increase of about 76 per cent in 15 years. He added that the company's growth pace is about double the rate of the country as a whole.

Even as the number of customers served by Northern Illinois Gas continues to increase, so does the average use in residences today. Used only for lighting purposes a century ago, today gas is in demand for cooking, water heating, clothes drying, refrigeration, incineration, heating and air conditioning the home, and for dozens of commercial and industrial uses.

For example, the average residential use in 1945 was 168 therms, and is currently at the annual rate of more than 275 therms.

This steady increase of both customers and usage has made the available supply Northern Illinois Gas can obtain from its two suppliers, Texas Eastern Natural Gas Pipeline Company and Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America, insufficient to meet all of the demands, particularly of those desiring gas to heat their homes.

Additional pipelines installed from Texas since World War II, plus increased storage capacity made possible by the construction of underground storage fields in nine locations, and more extensive utilization of existing supplies permitted Northern Illinois Gas to furnish nearly four times more gas last year to customers than it did in 1946. Incidentally, during this same period, 1946 thru 1954, more than 134,000 gas heat customers were added to the system—and still a waiting list of more than 133,000 remains!

While the utility's research engineers are engaged in seeking new ways to stretch the existing pipeline supply, Northern Illinois Gas looks hopefully to the further development of Natural Gas Storage Co. of Illinois mammoth underground storage field at Herscher as the most economical answer to this major problem as it begins the second century of gas in its 196-community service area.

One of the most important contributions to the nation's fire safety was made just 25 years ago, when the National Board of Fire Underwriters issued a Suggested Fire Prevention Ordinance, which later was brought out in its present form as a completed model Fire Prevention Code.

Last year 56 cities reported adopting the completed code, and 32 communities the abbreviated edition, bringing the total number of adoptions on record to 787.

God In History

Lesson for August 28, 1955

WHAT is it that makes the world move?—the world of men, of events, the wide world of history? What is the most powerful factor in history? Some say geography, some say climate (which is still geography), some say great men, some say ideas, some say the progress of inventions. The religious answer is strikingly different from all these: it is GOD.

The reason why historians seldom mention God (even when they believe Dr. Foreman in him) is that they limit themselves to what can be seen and heard. True, sometimes historians are concerned with thoughts, as for instance, what were Stalin and Roosevelt and Churchill thinking of at Yalta? But thoughts are not what scientists can deal with.

While God is not the kind of fact with which science can deal. So "historical science" as it is called confines itself deliberately to the kind of fact that science describes. Now God—let it be repeated—is not in that class of things at all. He is not a thing, he is not in a class. He works in history, but not in the way a man works, still less like a force such as that of wind or rainfall or volcanic eruptions.

God can be seen, but only with "eyes of faith." He can be known, but by no means as simply as your cat be known. God works in history, not separately from events and men, but in men and forces. As Paul says, God is over all, through all and in all.

King's Intention
According to the Bible, God can work in and by men of the acts of men who do not know him at all. There is a mystery here which no writer in the Bible undertakes to explain, a mystery which perhaps no human mind is capable of understanding. But the fact is believed by men of faith. Take for instance the famous king Cyrus, known to history outside the Bible as well as inside it. He was one of the great conquerors and administrators of all time. At a peak of his career he made himself master of what had been the Babylonian Empire. He knew that many a temple had been plundered and destroyed by the Babylonian kings, and he knew that the many displaced persons from all the conquered cities where those temples had been, would be grateful for the restoration of those temples. So King Cyrus, in order to make himself "solid" and popular with this mass of subject peoples, adopted the policy of returning the "gods" of those peoples and authorizing the restoration of their temple worship. It used to be thought that Cyrus was a worshipper of the Jews' God, but archaeologists have discovered the original edict or announcement of Cyrus, explaining what he was doing, and asking that all these gods whose worship he was restoring, would pray to Marduk, whom Cyrus regarded as the king over all the gods, on Cyrus' behalf. Isaiah says plainly that Cyrus did not know the true God,—but God knew him, and wrought out his purposes through him, ignorant of God though he was.

People's Devotion
The Bible shows also that God works through the devotion and service of men who do know him. We may doubt whether the proclamation of a Cyrus would have done any good if there had not been men who were eager and ready for just such a chance to return to Jerusalem and restore the worship of the true God. We have had in American history one of the many other illustrations of this same point in the freeing of the slaves. The emancipation proclamation of 1863 was not made altogether from charitable motives. There was a strong political-military purpose in it; the immediate object of the proclamation was not to free the slaves everywhere, but to win the war and restore the union. Later, when slavery was abolished by the Constitution, the freeing of the slaves would have done more harm than good if it had not been for the devotion of men and women of both races who made it their life-work to educate and uplift those who were like sheep without a shepherd. God does work in history; but he needs the service of those who understand his ways and work with him.

New Boob-of-Month Is Driver Who Says Signs Are For Suckers

The new "Boob of the Month" nominated by the Cook County highway department is the fellow who thinks stop signs were put up for somebody else.

He is presented as follows in the magazine Cook County Highway published monthly by the department:

"Careful drivers appreciate that stop signs are installed on engineering data for their safety. But not the Boob.

"As he sees it, signs are for suckers, and anyway the people who put them up probably didn't get out of fourth grade.

"When it comes to a rolling stop, the Boob is the slickest number on the road.

"But what he doesn't grasp is that every rolling stop sets the stage for a possible accident.

"Says the Boob as he runs the sign, "Next time I'll stop twice." "The extent of the hazard is indicated by a survey made by the Cook County highway department at 66 stop sign intersections in the suburban area.

"Of the 58,732 drivers checked, 11,653 made rolling stops—slowed down but kept moving—and 730 went thru with-out touching the brake pedal.

"But for luck and the care exercised by other drivers, there could have been 12,383 smash-ups!

"In Illinois, a rolling stop is a violation just as much as complete disregard of a stop sign. Article 1, Section 19.01 (a), Act Regulating Traffic on Highways: "Stop when required means complete cessation of movement."

Your electric friend "LITTLE BILL" says:

"I'll cook your meals electrically—for pennies a day!"

How Public Service Company keeps your electric bill down—
(while everything else goes up)

Though the cost of living has doubled—today electricity actually costs you less per kilowatt-hour than it did 25 years ago.

Many new ideas have helped Public Service Company keep the cost of electricity low. Today, for example, we send out your electric bill every two months. This cuts the cost of bookkeeping, printing, and meter-reading in half. And, by putting your bill on a post card, we also save on envelopes and postage. These "little savings" all add up to a big saving for you in lower-cost electricity.

So today, while you're using far more electricity than 25 years ago, you're actually getting more of it for your money (almost twice as much, as a matter of fact).
